1. A large number of Soviet enlisted men wearing red-bordered black shoulder boards and artillery insignia, some with motor transport insignia, were seen in the town of Korneuburg on 28 February 1953. Also observed were one enlisted man and a first lieutenant wearing black-bordered magenta shoulder boards; two officers with green cap braid; four enlisted women wearing red-bordered black shoulder boards, one with artillery insignia. Officers and enlisted personnel with red-bordered black shoulder boards are quartered in a building on the wharf.
2. Four gunboats were being overhauled at the wharf.
3. Heavy motor traffic to and from the engineer troops' barracks was observed.
